"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, JULY 10th, 1818.

The Prize sold in Shares.

The Stationary Prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, drawn yesterday afternoon in the Medical College Lottery, came out to No. 6780.—It gives us much pleasure, not only in adding another to the brilliant list of Capital Prizes sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, but that in the present instance the Prize is well divided among town and country friends, having been sold in Shares: One Half to a club of gentlemen in this City—One Quarter to two gentlemen, also in Baltimore, and the remaining Quarter to a customer residing in Alexandria. Fortune thus continuing the distribution of her favors from this office, and the award of bounty to our patrons in distant places, as well as at home.

The Next Stationary Capital,

to be awarded in the Medical College Lottery, will take place on Tuesday the 28th inst. (being the 40th drawing) when the first number drawn, will be entitled, agreeably to the scheme, to the great stationary premium of THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—It will be recollected, however, that the floating Prize of Ten Thousand Dollars is still in the wheel, and may come out at any time.

Adventurers should send on their orders without delay, particularly as there are so few Tickets remaining on hand; a proportion of these we have divided into Halves & Quarters for such of our customers who may prefer investing in shares, in preference to whole tickets—ALL OR-DERs will meet with our accustomed prompt attention, by the return mail—Address to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

No. 110, Market-street, Baltimore.

Latest from Havanna.—The schr. Col. Geo. Armistead, capt. Gatechair, arrived here on Monday last, in 9 days from Havanna. The day he sailed two cartels arrived there from Pensacola, with Spanish soldiers and the Governor of that place, sent by Gen. JACKSON.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 7.

Mr. GEORGE W. CAMPBELL departed from this city on Friday, for Boston, where the frigate Guerriere, commodore Macdonough, waits to convey him to Russia. Mr. Campbell expects to embark about the 15th of the month.

NEW-YORK, July 6.

ARRIVAL OF THE WASHINGTON.

The U. S. ship of the line WASHINGTON, Com. Chauncey, arrived in our harbor yesterday afternoon, and anchored at the quarantine ground about sunset. She sailed from Gibraltar 23d May, and came by way of Madeira, which she left 52 days since.

LATEST FROM GENERAL JACKSON.

By the arrival of the schr. Gold Huntress, from N. Orleans, the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser have received a file of N. Orleans papers to the 13th of June, one of which contains the Articles of Capitulation of Fort St. Charles, Barancas, in Pensacola, to the army under the command of Major General Jackson.

The Capitulation consists of 23 articles, which occupy two columns of a N. Orleans paper. The following are among the most important of the conditions required. The garrison to march out with the honours of war, their arms to be stacked at the foot of the glacis, where they were to remain until the troops were embarked for Havanna, when they will be returned. The officers and troops to carry with them their personal effects. All titles legally derived from the crown of Spain prior to this date, to be guaranteed and respected.—The garrison to be transported to Havanna on account of the United States, and Spanish rations allowed where they do not exceed those of the U. States. A competent number of vessels to be furnished for embarking the personal effects, papers, &c. of the Governor, and those in the civil and military offices, to be delivered up without inspection.

The sick and wounded to be maintained by the United States. The garrison of Pensacola to enjoy the same privileges as the garrison of Barancas. The provisions actually found in the two places to be appropriated for the Spanish troops. Individuals disposed to remain in Florida, to be respected and protected. The officers and troops to be transported to Pensacola where they shall remain until embarked for Havanna. The Alabama chief now in the Fort, named Opayhola, shall be included in this capitulation, the governor engaging that he shall never return to Florida. A free toleration to all religions granted. Any Spanish vessels arriving to be freely admitted.

Art. 19. The capitulation is made under the confidence that the general of the American troops will comply with his offer of returning integrally this province in the state in which he received it, as stated in his official letter. Approved—And the restoration made under the conditions expressed in Gen. Jackson's communication to the governor of Pensacola, dated 23d May, 1818.
